The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 20. to Thursday August 23. 1683.

Whitehall, August 22.

THe following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Loyal Livery-Men, and others Inhabiting within Your City and Liberty of Westminster, Signed the 19th. day of July, in the Thirty fifth Year of your Majesties Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHen we reflect (with all the Extasies of undissembled Joy and most profound Amazement) on the long Series of Miracles which the good Providence of Almighty God has manifested to all the World, in the wonderful Preservation of your Sacred Person, through the whole course of your Glorious Life, and happy Reign over us, we could not without the highest affront to Heaven and your Sacred Majesty, neglect to bear a part in that Exultation, which Angels, and all good Men conceive for your Majesties and your Royal Brother's late happy Deliverance from the hands of Wicked and Blood thirsty Men, a Generation whom neither the Terrors of Justice, nor the Charms of Clemency, could ever hitherto oblige to their Duty and Allegiance.

We (Dread Sir) on whom the immediate Influence of your Gracious Favour has continually descended, as in Duty bound, with all Humility prostrate our selves at your Royal Feet, with Hearts full of Acknowledgment to your Omnipotent Preserver, and with them, our Hands, and the Results of all we enjoy under your Merciful Scepter, which shall be at all times ready, chearfully, and vigorously to defend your Sacred Person, the lawful Succession of your Imperial Crown and Dignity, and the Government both in Church and State as it is now establish'd by Law.

To these deserv'd Tenders of our best Abilities to serve your Majesty, we have nothing left to add, but our fervent Address to the King of Kings, that he would multiply and adorn your Majesties Years with the durable love of your Friends, and absolute Victory over your implacable Enemies, and when He shall remove You from us (which late may it be) that he would exchange this your corruptible for an Incorruptible Diadem of Glory and Immortality amongst the blessed Lovers of Mankind.

Which we shall ever Pray, &c.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesties Justices of the Peace for the County of Bucks, and the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Sessions of your Peace held at the Town of Buckingham, the Twelfth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign, &c.

SHEWETH,

THat the Obedience of us your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects to your Majesties Authority, our high Veneration of your Sacred Person, and our tender Regard for the Preservation of your Majesties Life, do make us Abhor those Bloody Villaines who lately Conspired against your Majesties most Sacred Person and Royal Brother James Duke of York, with a design to Dissolve the present Government, and Interrupt the Lineal Succession of the Crown.

That as we are Exceedingly ashamed and sorry for the Cursed Contrivance, so are we transported with Joy for the happy Discovery of such a Hellish Design, which we look upon to be a Scandal to our Religion, and an Indelible Reproach brought upon our whole Nation.

In a due Sense whereof we shall endeavor as much as in us lieth, to Detect and Apprehend these and all other Traitors who shall attempt any thing against your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, or the Rightful Heirs and Successors, in the Crown.

That if your Majesty shall at any time need our Assistance, we shall be ready to ingage our Lives and Fortunes whenever your most Sacred Majesty shall so desire the same.

In the Interim we shall make it our earnest request to Heaven, That your Sacred Majesty may ever escape all Secret Conspiracies, and Triumph over all open Opposers, That God would give your Majesty the Hearts of your Subjects, and the Necks of your Enemies, and a long and Prosperous Reign in this World, and an Eternal Crown of Glory in the next.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Grand Inquest of the County of Southampton, at the Assizes held at the Castle of Winton, on the 17. day of July 1683. Whereunto they humbly desire the Concurrence of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and the Justices of the Peace of the said County.

SHEWETH,

THat we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects do with thankful Hearts acknowledge the Divine Providence to be most visible in the late Preservation of your Sacred Person, and his Royal Highness, from the hands of Blood-thirsty and Cruel Men: And we cannot but with Horrour and great Astonishment behold the implacable Malice, base Treachery, and foul Ingratitude of those false Conspirators, who under the specious Name of True-Protestants, designed not only the Destruction of that pure Religion as now by Law Established, but likewise of your Royal Person, the Zealous Defender of the truly Antient Catholick & Apostolick Faith; The deep Sense we all have of this Detestable Conspiracy, hath excited us at this time, not only to express our Thankfulness to Almighty God, for the seasonable discovery of this Hellish Contrivance, but declare to all the World our readiness to expose our Lives and Fortunes to the utmost danger, in the defence of your Royal Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors; And that we will use our best Endeavors to Detect all Associations and Combinations whatsoever, and to Suppress Conventicles, the very Nurseries of Sedition and Rebellion.

That the same good Providence may still defend your Majesty from all your implacable Enemies, and prolong your Days in Peace and Tranquility, shall be the daily Prayer of

Your most Obedient Subjects and Servants,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesties humble and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Capital Citizens of your Majesty's City of Carlisle, Reflecting with Horror

Horror and Aſtoniſhment, upon the late Deteſtable and Traiterous Conſpiracy to Subvert the good Government of this Church and State, by taking away the Lives of your moſt Sacred Majeſty and Royal Brother, do (with all Humility) take this occaſion to expreſs the Joy of our Hearts for your happy and wonderful Deliverance from the Bloody deſigns of your Enemies; Eſteeming the ſame a particular Demonſtration that the Bleſſing of God doth and will ever in a ſpecial manner, protect your Majeſty for the ſupport and defence of the True Intereſt of the Eſtabliſhed Religion and Government.

We moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, That (ſince the Safety of your Majeſties Perſon is (next to the Favour of God) the principal Foundation of the hopes of all your Loyal Subjects) your Majeſty will pleaſe to imploy the power of your Kingdoms, and the Juſtice of your Laws to bring to Puniſhment all ſuch as have been concerned in any Traiterous or wicked Deſigns againſt your Majeſties moſt Sacred Perſon, or in Defaming or Impeaching your Majeſties good and gracious Government

And we by our daily Prayers to God, ſhall intreat for a Bleſſing upon your Majeſty, your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors, and for your long and happy Reign over us. And ſhall alſo be ready to obey your Majeſties Commands in whatever may be for the good of your Majeſties Service, with our Lives and Fortunes. In Teſtimony whereof we have Subſcribed our Hands and cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the Fourteenth day of July, in the Thirty fifth Year of your Majeſties Reign.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, and the Grand Jury for the County of W. ſmorland, at the General Quarter-Seſſions holden at Appleby for the ſame, the tenth of July, Anno Dom. 1683.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

AS it is with incredible grief of mind, that we underſtand that Your Majeſties moſt Sacred Perſon, with that of Your Royal Brothers the Duke of York, hath been endangered by the Deſperate Machinations of moſt Wicked Men; ſo it is with infinite Joy that we ſee the ſame Providence which hath ſo often preſerved you Both from many imminent Dangers, continue ſtill to Preſerve Your Majeſties Perſon, and Your Kingdoms, in the Diſcovering and Preventing all thoſe Horrid Conſpiracies would have endangered both. And ſince 'tis certain that we can never enjoy any Security or Happineſs comparable to that we have found under Your Majeſties moſt juſt and merciful Government. So we do in all Humility aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall never fail to defend, to the utmoſt of our Power, Your Majeſties moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, Your Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, againſt the Conſpiracies of all Men living.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Freemen, and Commonalty of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Hertford.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, preſume to approach Your Royal Preſence, that we may expreſs our great Joy, that the Almighty God of Heaven has in ſo miraculous a manner preſerved Your Majeſty from the Wicked Deſigns of thoſe Miſcreants who would have Barbarouſly murdered Your Sacred Perſon, cruelly aſſaſſinated Your Deareſt Brother, and Maſſacred Your moſt Loyal Subjects, that they might reduce our Monarchy, the beſt of Governments, into a Commonwealth, and by that means make themſelves our Lords, and us their Slaves, and draw a perpetual Charge upon the People, to ſupport their Power, and promote our Miſery; all which doings were contrived againſt Your Majeſty, who had been graciouſly pleaſed to aſſert the Religion now eſtabliſhed, to ſecure the People from the pretended fear of Popery and Arbitrary Power, to eaſe the Gentry from the performance of Knights Service, the Yeomandry from the Payment of their Annual Compoſitions due to the Crown, and the People from the Charge of Purveyances, to preſerve our Bodies from all Illegal Impriſonments, our Eſtates from the burthen of Free-Quarter, and by your Wiſe Conduct have preſerved us all in peace and quiet at a time when the Miſeries of War rage in all our neighbouring Countries, and have denied us nothing which a Prince can in reaſon grant, or Subjects can deſire, to make them Happy. Theſe and many more Your ſignal Favours (beſides our bounden duty) oblige us all to deteſt and abhor to eternity, all thoſe Fanatical and Republican Regicides, and their wicked Principles and Contrivances, and to unite hands and hearts, our Lives and Fortunes, againſt the Enemies of our King, his Rightful Heirs, and lawful Succeſſors: And to entail our Loyalty upon our Succeſſors in this Your Borough, we ſhall always take care that no diſaffected Perſon ſhall be admitted into our Freedom, and pray that all Conſpiracies againſt Your Majeſty, Your moſt affectionate Brother, and all the Royal Family, may be blaſted in their Conception, and that Your Reign may be long and Happy, and that the Crown may ever flouriſh in Your Right Line.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Bayliff, Burgeſſes, and Grand Jury of Your Majeſties moſt Faithful and Loyal Corporation of the Borough and Pariſh of Buckingham at the General Quarter-Seſſions holden for the ſaid Corporation the ninth day of July 1683. before Thomas Hil don Bayliff, and other His Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace, with the unanimous concurrence of the reſt of the Inhabitants.

WE Your Majeſties Conſtant, Loyal, and moſt Dutiful Subjects, having had the honour to be Partakers with Your Sacred Majeſty, and Royal Father of Bleſſed Memory, in all Your Misfortunes for that unſhaken and unblemiſhed Fidelity which we have at all times expreſs'd to Your Royal Family, Perſon and Government, as well during that fatal and fatal Eclipſe which befell You and us before Your Majeſties Happy Reſtauration, as under thoſe black Clouds which have again been gathering over Yours and our Heads, cannot but with hearts tranſported with Joy and Thankfulneſs, offer in the firſt place the Tribute of our Praiſe and Thanks unto Almighty God for thoſe many Miraculous Deliverances which he hath vouchſafed to Your Majeſty and this Poor Nation, and more eſpecially from that late Helliſh and Trayterous Conſpiracy againſt Your Sacred Life, and the Life of Your Royal Brother, and the beſt and happieſt Conſtitution of Government both in Church and State that ever was in any Nation, and for the utter Deſtruction of all Your good and Loyal Subjects, which was carried on by men of deſperate Phanatical and ambitious Spirits, under the ſame Pretences of a Zeal for Religion and Liberty, as that of the former Rebellion againſt Your Royal Father of Bleſſed Memory, and againſt the Experience of all thoſe Tragedies, Miſeries, and Confuſions which it brought upon us, and that in the ſame Age, which no time or Hiſtory can Parallel. We therefore in the next place deſire to join with all true and good Proteſtants of the Church of England, in the juſt Deteſtation of all ſuch Phanatical Principles and Practices, which are not only contrary, but a Reproach to Chriſtianity it ſelf, and do hereby pray, that the whole Nation being undeceived thereby, may unite with us in the defence of Your Royal Perſon, Crown and Government both in Church and State, the rightful Succeſſion of the Crown, and the true Proteſtant Religion confirmed and eſtabliſhed by Law, againſt all Phanatical and Jeſuitical Attempts whatſoever. For the maintenance whereof, we are ſtill ready, as heretofore, to devote our Lives and Fortunes; beſeeching Your Majeſty to accept of this further expreſſion of our Duty, and begging of Almighty God the continuance of his good Providence over You, in the Preſervation of Your Royal Perſon, Dear Brother, and Prolongation of Your Long and Happy Reign over us.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and of the Grand Jury of the Town of Shrewsbury at the general Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid Town, the thirteenth day of July 1683. whoſe names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

SHEWETH,

THat we your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects are deeply ſenſible of the great danger Your Majeſties Royal Perſon ſon and the Perſon of Your Royal Brother were lately in, by the premeditated Trayterous, Bloody, Horrid, and Helliſh Conſpiracy of divers Wicked and Rebellious Perſons, who under the Pretences of Religion, deſigned the Murther not only of your Sacred Majeſty, but alſo of His Royal Highneſs, and many of Your Majeſties moſt Loyal Subjects; and the total Subverſion and Extirpation of Your Majeſties Government both in Church and State, under which, with all thankfulneſs we acknowledge to enjoy our greateſt Happineſs and Proſperity; That we deſire always with thanks to Almighty God to Commemorate his great Mercy ſhewed to this Nation by the Happy and Wonderful Deliverances of Your Majeſty and His Royal Highneſs from the aforeſaid Dangers. And according to our duty we do hereby give Your Majeſty the higheſt Aſſurances we can, that we prize and value the Preſervation and Safety of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon above our own, that we are reſolved to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, and of the now eſtabliſhed Government in Church and State, againſt all the open and ſecret Enemies thereof. And that to the uttermoſt of our Powers, ſhall endeavour to Diſcover and Defeat all Trayterous Conſpiracies and Aſſociations whatſoever, which are or ſhall be againſt the ſame dayly, and earneſtly praying for Your Majeſty's Long and Happy Reign over us; and for Your Succeſs againſt all the Enemies of Your Sacred Perſon and Government.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Bucks.

SHEWETH,

THat we Your Majeſties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being fully ſatisfied of a Traiterous, Bloody, and Horrid Conſpiracy againſt the unvaluable Lives of Your Sacred Majeſty and Deareſt Brother James Duke of York, and tending to the Subverſion of the Government both in Church and State, ſecretly contrived by ill-affected and deſperate Perſons, ſome of whom are already Convicted, others, to avoid the ſtroke of Juſtice, are either fled, or elſe have laid violent hands upon themſelves.

In a due ſenſe of the ſignal Deliverance of Your Majeſty from this Trayterous and Bloody Conſpiracy, we return our unfeigned Thanks unto Almighty God, and as particularly in duty bound, do moſt humbly beg Your Majeſty to be Aſſured that we are ready to lay down our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Royal Perſon, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, and the preſent Government as it is eſtabliſhed in Church and State, and ſhall ever pray for Your Majeſties long Life and Proſperous Reign, and that Your Enemies may fall before You.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Grand Jury of the Town and County, of the Town of Nottingham, at their General Quarter-Seſſions there held, the ſixteenth day of July laſt, on behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Burgeſſes, and others the Inhabitants.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, taking notice, and being fully ſatisfied of the moſt Horrid and Helliſh Conſpiracy of Wicked and Ungrateful Perſons, to Murder Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, and His Royal Highneſs (Your Dear Brother) and to Subvert the Laws and Government of Your Realms, and involve them in Blood and Confuſion; makes us recollect and deeply ſenſible of the Miſerable Effects of the late unparallel'd Rebellion, the Execrable Murder of Your Sacred Father, the Subverſion of Laws and Government, and the Tyranny then exerciſed upon Your People: And being now fully convinced that theſe deteſtable Contrivances are now hatch'd and managed by like Monſters of Men, whoſe Principles lead to the Extirpation of Monarchy (the moſt Divine of Governments) gives us this occaſion to deteſt and abhor that Damnable Doctrine by them profeſs'd and practis'd, that Kings may be kill'd and depos'd by their Subjects. And to magnifie that Providence, which (almoſt by Miracles) has ſo often preſerv'd Your Sacred Majeſty; and conſtrains us freely and chearfully to devote our Lives and Fortunes for the Preſervation of Your Royal Perſon, and the Regal Line in its Legal Succeſſion, and Your Government as now eſtabliſhed. And moſt devoutly do Pray for the Bleſſing of Your Long and Proſperous Raign, and that that Line may have no end till Time ceaſes. In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of this Corporation, to be hereunto affixed, the 23th day of July, in the Five and thirtieth year of His Majeſties Reign of England.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Lord Biſhop, Deputy-Lieutenant, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentry, and Clergy of the County of Lincoln.

Dread Soveraign.

AFter our hearty Thanks to Almighty God for the Miraculous Deliverance of the Perſon of your moſt Sacred Majeſty, and of your Deareſt and Royal Brother James Duke of York, from the Traiterous and moſt Helliſh Conſpiracies of Perſons Diſaffected to the Eſtabliſhed Government, which we have for many years moſt happily enjoyed under the Gracious Reign of your Self and Royal Progenitors

We Your moſt Faithful and Loyal Subjects do once more Humbly preſume to aſſure your Majeſty, That as nothing is dearer to us than your Majeſties Safety and long continuance amongſt us, ſo nothing ſhall be wanting in us on all occaſions, when your Majeſty ſhall Command, to witneſs the ſame with the aſſiſtance of our Lives and Fortunes, which we ſhall think well hazarded in the defence of your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and juſt Prerogative, and the Government of Church and State.

And becauſe ſome Ill-principl'd Men, Ingrateful Monſters (notwithſtanding the manifold and repeated Inſtances of your Majeſties former Mercy and Clemency) have again deſign'd to Subvert the Government both of Church and State, and to involve theſe Nations in a Sea of Blood and Confuſion by their endeavoring an Alteration in an undoubted and indiſputable Title of Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

We look upon our ſelves obliged in Duty, to declare to your Majeſty, That we ſhall conſtantly and firmly oppoſe all ſuch Innovations as deſtructive to the Peace and Tranquillity of theſe Realms, and inconſiſtent with the happineſs of ſucceeding Generations; And that we utterly Deteſt and from our Hearts Abhor the moſt Damnable Principles of our pretended (but Blood-thirſty and Deceitful) Saints.

And we further (Great Sir) do aſſure your Majeſty, That when in your Princely Wiſdom you ſhall think fit to call the great Councel of the Nation together, we will, to the uttermoſt of our powers, endeavour a return of ſuch Repreſentatives, the iſſue of whoſe Conſultations may fully anſwer your Majeſties expectations, and the end of their ſitting in Parliament.

That God Almighty, the Protector of his Vicegerents, and who covered Your Head in the day of Battle, and hath ſince ſo often and ſo Miraculouſly defended your Sacred Perſon, would Still Preſerve your Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs from the Combined Stratagems and Barbarous Attempts of your Aſſociated and moſt Malitious Enemies, ſhall be the daily Prayer of,

Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Windſor, Auguſt, 20. An Humble and Loyal Addreſs from the Inhabitants of the City of Lincoln, and Liberties thereof, was this day preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Thomas Meeres, which His Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 14. The Daniſh and French Fleet do now lye in a Line before Schonen, which ſeems to give the Swedes ſome jealouſie. The King of Sweden is in Schonen, and our King, before he went from hence for Holſtein, ſent to Compliment him upon his arrival in thoſe parts

From the Imperial Camp at Enzeſdorf, Auguſt 10. The Duke of Lorrain having continued ſome days in the neighbourhood of Presbourg, thought fit to draw nearer to Vienna, and accordingly removed his Camp to this place, where we hear the Cannon that's employed in the Siege. The Duke of Lorrain has ſent a Man into the Town to give the Governor an account as well of the late advantage he obtained upon Count Teckely, and of his having ſecured the
